

Japan Consortium for Area Studies
Workshop by Scholars of Next Generation

The Logic of Area: Through the Activities of People in 'Sudan'

Program

10 : 00 : Opening the Door

10 : 30 : Opening Remarks, Explaining the Aim of the Workshop

10 : 50 : Mohammad Omer Abdin (Doctoral Course Student, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

The Dynamics of Political Mobilization Strategies in North Sudan: Examining the impact of the independence of South Sudan.

11 : 20 : Daisuke Maruyama (Doctoral Course Student, Kyoto University)

Inclusiveness and Exclusiveness in Sufism; Cooperation among Tariqas (Sufi Orders) and the Framework of 'Sudan'

11 : 50 : Lunch

13 : 00 : Yuko Tobinai (Doctoral Course Student, Sophia University)

Living in 'Sudan': the Conditions of the Squatter Settlement in Khartoum during the 'Return' and after that

13 : 30 : Shuichiro Nakao (Doctoral Course Student, Kyoto University)

A Preliminary Report on People's Histories of Juba

14 : 00 : Eri Hashimoto (Doctoral Course Student, Hitotsubashi University)

Imagining 'Tribes': Inter-tribal Clashes, External Interventions and Spiritual Leaders in Post-independent South Sudan

14 : 30 : Break

14 : 50 : Naoki Naito (Associate Professor, Tokushima University)

Comments

15 : 10 : Discussion : The Logic of Area: Through the Studies from 'Sudan'

16 : 50 : Closing