

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON THE MUSLIM SOCIETIES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA

ORGANIZED BY: ISEA (ISLAM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA) RESEARCH PROJECT JOINTLY ORGANIZED BY: KOTA KINABALU LIAISON OFFICE, ILCAA (RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR LANGUAGES AND CULTURES OF ASIA AND AFRICA) IN TUFS
(TOKYO UNIVERSITY OF FOREIGN STUDIES)

DATE: JANUARY 23, 2010
TIME: 14:00-17:45
VENUE: ROOM 306, ILCAA, TOKYO UNIVERSITY OF FOREIGN STUDIES
3-11-1 ASAHICHO, FUCHU-CITY, TOKYO

Program of the Workshop

- 14:00-14:10 Opening Remarks
 by Ikuya Tokoro (ILCAA, Tokyo University of foreign Studies)
- 14:10-15:10 Chaiwat Satha-Anand (Thammasat University)
 “Violent Conflicts, Nonviolent Protests and Sacred Space:
 Two Pattani Mosques and the helix of violence/nonviolence”
- 15:10-16:10 Azizah Kassim (Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia)
 “Muslim Refugees in Malaysia: An analysis of the status of Rohingyas from Myanmar.”
- 16:10-16:30 Tea Break
- 16:30-17:45 Discussion
 Commentator: Omar Farouk (Hiroshima City University)
 Paul H. Kratoska (National University of Singapore Publishing Company)

ISLAM IN SOUTHEAST ASIA (ISEA):
DYNAMICS OF TRANSNATIONAL NETWORKS AND LOCAL CONTEXTS
<http://www.aa.tufts.ac.jp/fsc/isea/>